Monument Dedication and Unveiling	The cornerstone was laid by the Masonic Lodge on August 23, 1910, with the unveiling originally planned for May 10, 1911. The reasons for the delay are uncertain but on September 25, 1913 the big day had finally arrived. Six little girls, members of the Anne Virginia Jackson Chapter, Children's Auxiliary to the Hertford County Chapter, U.D.C., assisted in the unveiling, led by nine-year-old Marietta Randolph Bridger. The orator for the day was then Attorney General, later Governor, T.W. Bickett.
Subject Notes	Mrs. Roswell Carter Bridger and Miss Willie Boone, daughter of Captain Thomas D. Boone, worked to solicit subscriptions throughout the county in order to secure the monument.
Location	The monument is located in front of the Hertford County Courthouse, 701 King Street, Winton, NC. The Hertford County WWI Memorial is located on the other side of the building facing N. King Street.
Landscape	The monument is situated on the intersection of two roads, on the lawn of a one-story, red-brick county courthouse.
